THE SIDEWALK ORDINANCE

If Enforced Would Do More to Beautify Paris Than all Others.

Editor Bourbon News:—

I noticed in your last issue that the sidewalk question was again before the Council at its last meeting and that the Mayor had made the statement that as soon as the weather was suitable for laying sidewalks he would issue warrants against all persons who had been ordered to lay them and have a fine of $3 imposed for each day they failed to begin work.

Please inform the public what has become of the ordinance passed more than a year ago requiring that all sidewalks thereafter to be built should be built of cement according to stipulated specifications, and why, in the interest of "a more beautiful Paris" this ordinance is not enforced but treated as if it had never been passed?

CITIZEN.

The ordinance referred to is still a city ordinance just as it was originally adopted, having never been rescinded nor changed in any way, and it is one of the very best ordinances ever passed by a Paris council, and it ought to be rigidly enforced.

Why it is not enforced the News is unable to say. The objection sometimes heard that it would be a hardship to certain persons if enforced, is without weight, because it is entirely within the discretion of the Council as to whether they will order any person to build any kind of a sidewalk, and certainly an ordinance requiring that all sidewalks be constructed shall be of cement, cannot work a hardship to any person if it is not enforced as to him and he is not required to put down any sidewalk at all. There is nothing the matter with the ordinance. It is all right and its enforcement would do more to beautify Paris than all the other ordinances on the books.

As an illustration of the great change wrought by replacing an old worn out brick sidewalks with a new one of cement, let any one look at the Fee block on Main street between Seventh and Eighth, and the block on High extending from the Public Library past the Renick property. These blocks are a credit to any town and a sample of what we would see in every part of the city with in a decade if this cement ordinance were enforced. If the Council waits until an ordinance is passed that will not be objected to by somebody, the millennium will find us with the same old shabby, disreputable brick sidewalks full of holes and in the winter season half buried in mud which we now have and have always had to the shame of the town.

Miserable, shabby, ill looking sidewalks are the best possible evidences of a dead town and an unthrifty, unenterprising population. A town that tolerates such sidewalks never can be anything but a village. A village on the other hand, with beautiful sidewalks and well kept lawns has all the appearance of a city except size.

Cement is the only up-to-date sidewalk. It is clean and sanitary, looks best, wears best, and is best in every way, and the News again appeals to the Mayor and Council to enforce the Concrete sidewalk ordinance, exercising a proper discretion as to whether any sidewalks shall be required when it would be a positive hardship to build them, but insisting, when ever they are required that they shall be made of concrete.

Dying of Famine is, in its torments, like dying of consumption. The progress of consump-end, is a long torture, both to victim and friends. "When I had consumption in its first stage," writes Wm.

Myers, of Cearfoss, Md., "after trying different medicines and a good doctor, in vain, I at last took Dr.
King's New Discovery, which quickly

Throat Coughs

A tickling in the throat; hoarseness at times; a deep

You want something that will heal the inflamed membranes, enrich the blood and tone up the system.

Scott's Emulsion

It has wonderful healing and nourishing power.

FAMINE IN HEIRESSES.

English Fortune Hunters Bemoan Death of American Beauties.

There is an American heiress famine in England, at least Henry Labouchere says so, in the current number of Truth. This situation, he says, has never before occurred in the history of England. He states further:

"Almost every impecunious eye in the West end had turned toward the United States. At this moment it is heard that either the stock of American heiresses is nearly exhausted, or that many of them are disinclined to purchase husbands in the European markets! It is, indeed, hinted that many have adopted the 'Imperial Idea,' and now pretend that an European man is to be preferred to a European physical and financial wreck that has inherited a title. 'An heiress, an heiress, my kingdom for an heiress, my kingdom for an heiress!' is a misquoted passage that is on a thousand lips.

"It has recently become the practice in England for the Government to sell titles for the benefit of the funds of the party, and there can be little objection, therefore, to the principle being extended a little further. It should be rendered legal for an impecunious peer or baronet to sell his title—for life at least—with the consent of the courts. That would, moreover, benefit his creditors."

Are You Tired, Nervous and Sleepless?

Nervousness and sleeplessness are usually due to the fact that the nerves are not fed on properly nourishing blood; they are starved nerves. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes pure, rich blood, and thereby the nerves are properly nourished and all the organs of the body are run as smoothly as machinery which runs in oil. In this way you feel clean, strong and strenuous—you are toned up and invigorated, and you are good for a whole lot of physical or mental work. Best of all, the strength and increase in vitality and health are lasting.
The trouble with most tonics and medicines which have a large, booming sale for a short time, is that they are largely composed of alcohol holding the drugs in solution. This alcohol shrinks up the red blood corpuscles, and in the long run greatly injures the system. One may feel excited and better for the time being, yet in the end weakened and with vitality decreased. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery contains no alcohol. Every bottle of it bears upon its wrapper The Badge of Honesty, in a full list of all its several ingredients. For the druggist to offer you something he claims is "just as good" is to insult your intelligence.

Every ingredient entering into the world-famed "Golden Medical Discovery" has the unanimous approval and endorsement of the leading medical authorities of all the several schools of practice. No other medicine sold through druggists for like purposes has any such endorsement.
The "Golden Medical Discovery" not only produces all the good effects to be obtained from the use of Golden Seal root, in all stomach, liver and bowel troubles, as in dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation, ulceration of stomach and bowels and kindred ailments, but the Golden Seal root used in its compounding is greatly enhanced in its curative action by other ingredients such as Stone root, Black Cherrybark, Bloodroot, Mandrake root and chemically pure triple-refined glycerine.
